100KITCHENS™

"It's not just a kitchen". We at 100 kitchens believe that kitchen has become the epicenter of the Home, a place that probably shows who you are and how you conceive the way you live. We take enormous pleasure in dedicating our team to create a life space that oozes life and vibrancy keeping intact the functionality and dynamics of modern day living.

It is Our opinion, the kitchen area is in constant evolution, and must adapt to the exacting demands of daily living, new everyday requirements and new living situations. The focus shifts from the product to the project, with close attention to all aspects of form and function that go to make up the kitchen as a whole. This gave us the ideas of dividing our product range into separate themes, but with interchangeable elements and accessories that can be chosen to suit the taste and preferences of the user and different ways in which he conceives a kitchen.

Lets celebrate fine Living !!!

"Simplicity is the ultimate form of sophistication"

- Leonardo Da Vinci
