PAARKHI:

ABOUT US

Born in the midst of a lockdown, Paarkhi brings back experiences from the west. For a connoisseur who prides in where he belongs. To redraft the identity of stone in India. The homecoming of a craft.

We dream, we love, we curate and we create. It is a journey that has many beginnings but no end. It has the whims of an explorer and the thrill of an adventurer. Fuelled by our love for natural stone from the most exotic parts of the world, we fulfil our passion by creating pieces that are (im)perfect yet unique.
