FLUID THOUGHTS

I got a lot of vibes and cheerfulness when i was working on this art work. The shades of blue inspired me to do the painting.

I tried to put all my thoughts on the canvas saying how the ocean is, steadfast yet unpredictable. inviting and warm. Calm yet powerful.

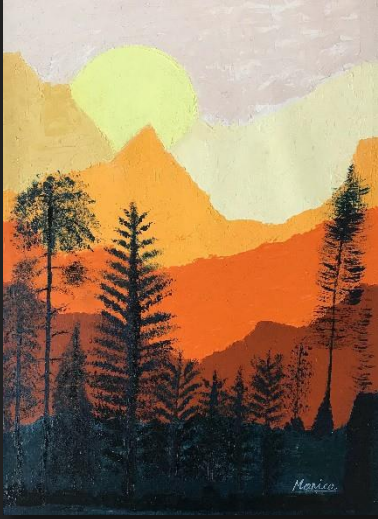

Being the art work textured, it gives the viewer a visual and a rich tactile experience.

The pleasant but bright shades of the landscape reminds me how sunny the day can be with the different shades. LESS IS MORE

These paintings aim at expressing a sort of minimalism. These artistic interpretations suspend unnecessary ornamentation and visual distraction by highlighting their most fundamental features. In each frame, tone, content, composition, alignment, and color all succumb to the minimalist impression. There is no doubt a beauty in their simplicity. Less may be a bore, but here less is always more.

THE DUNES

When I painted this bold and powerful abstract landscape painting I focused on feeling energy and lights in it. I love the tones of earthy warm tones full of black, orange, gold, saffron colors. This artwork is a mix media with bright gold and vibrant color. Acrylic is one of my favorite medium. Resin sand gives the viewer a visual and a rich tactile effect.

Nam Myoho Renge kyo

Through the painting, I have tried to bring forth the pure and fundamental energy of chanting and echoing positive bell vibes.

To chant Nam Myoho Renge Kyo is to call out the name of the buddha nature within us and all living beings.
