Choreographer & Actor

“Hello, I’m Goral Joshi a dynamic professional with a passion for choreography and acting. With a rich and diverse background, I have successfully carved a niche for myself in the world of entertainment. As an accomplished choreographer, I’ve had the privilege of crafting captivating dance routines that have earned recognition both nationally and internationally. My journey as an actor has led me to diverse roles, from the silver screen to the theater stage, where I’ve breathed life into characters and stories. From winning prestigious dance competitions to being hailed as the ‘Garba Queen,’ my dedication and artistry have consistently left an indelible mark. With a strong foundation of skills and experiences, I continue to explore new avenues and collaborations. Join me as I invite you to explore my world of creativity and performance.”
