

*Serving Love, one Dessert at a time,
Welcoming you to our Sweet Escape.*

2015 is when the journey of mixing batters to delivering our first cake began. Couldn't have our dream imagined to look like this. The fascination of desserts from different lands always felt the most comfortable and clicked a connection within. We were keen on serving desserts that were traditional with a modern aesthetic being a balance of flavours, textures and connects you to a core memory of your childhood where your summer vacations meant having your grand ma's love in the form of Desserts.

In the journey of building Dessertwale, we learned, evolved and adapted our love and passion for desserts. Dessertwale is our very own dessert paradise where we let you indulge in a culinary experience that is both Indian and modern. Welcoming you to try our modern take on traditional Indian recipes that will touch your soul. Dessert is not just something sweet it is the last bite you experience after food and the first you remember when you Wake Up!

Best Regards,
Team Dessertwale.
